

Fifty Years of Responsive Legal Excellence

Kelly, Rode & Kelly, LLP

When the founders of Kelly, Rode & Kelly first opened their law practice in 1956, the Long Island Expressway ended at Exit 57 and much of Suffolk County was farmland. Since that time, the region has experienced phenomenal growth. And throughout its 50-year history, Kelly, Rode & Kelly has expanded with the community, establishing offices in both Nassau and Suffolk counties.

"Quality legal services have been our hallmark since my father established the firm," says Shawn P. Kelly, senior partner. "While new partners have emerged, the firm's tradition of excellence has continued throughout the years." In addition to Kelly, the firm's partners include George J. Wilson, John W. Hoefling and Loris Zeppieri.

Since its inception, Kelly, Rode & Kelly has remained focused on providing responsive legal representation throughout Nassau and Suffolk counties, the five boroughs of New York City and nearby counties. "We're very well known in the field. Many of our clients have been with us for decades," says Kelly. The firm enjoys the highest rating (AV) from the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register, the authoritative resource for information on the legal profession, and is consistently listed among the Bar Register of Pre-eminent Lawyers.

Experience in the Courtroom

Kelly, Rode & Kelly attorneys have an outstanding track record in taking cases to trial. "Our niche is advocating for our clients before judges and juries," says Kelly. "If you're involved in a situation that involves litigation, our firm is among the best. We're in the courts every day constantly striving for the best possible outcome. Our longevity and the quality of our legal work have earned our firm the respect of the bench and bar alike."

The firm places a high priority on continued research and education. "We pride ourselves in staying abreast of the most current changes in the law and the most recent decisions from the appellate courts," says Kelly.

The firm's experienced attorneys include many who lecture to various bar associations and serve as adjunct professors. Attorneys Shawn Kelly, George J. Wilson and John Hoefling are individually rated AV, the highest rating given by Martindale-Hubbell. In addition, John Hoefling holds the distinction of having appeared and argued an appeal before the United States Supreme Court.

Over the years, four of the firm's partners have been inducted into fellowship of the American College of Trial Lawyers. Fellowship is extended by invitation only and after careful investigation to experienced trial lawyers who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. The number of fellows in any one state or province can never exceed 1 percent of all attorneys in any particular state or province.

Kelly, Rode & Kelly attracts a wide range of clients including the New York Hospital Medical Center of Queens, Choice Hotels International, CVS Pharmacy, State

Farm Insurance Company and Titan Propane. The firm specializes in handling diverse matters such as insurance coverage issues, products liability, medical and hospital malpractice and professional liability cases.
